

Wisconsin Ethics Commission

State Agencies' Liaisons to the Legislature

CONTENT

Each January and July every state agency identifies to the Wisconsin Ethics Commission employees whose normal duties include lobbying the legislature on the agency's behalf. The report also includes:

- Area of Interest
The general subject area each employee attempted to influence during the preceding 6 month period and any new areas for the upcoming 6-month period.
- Percentage of time spent lobbying
A reasonable estimate of the time each employee spent lobbying on behalf of the agency during the preceding 6 months.
- Annual state salary
The annual state salary of each employee named in the report.

COMPLIANCE HISTORY

Approximately 110 state agencies and their attached boards file these reports. The Wisconsin Ethics Commission receives excellent compliance. The Commission's staff reviews each Statement for completeness. The reports are available for review at the Ethics Commission's office.

DIRECTORY

The Wisconsin Ethics Commission publishes on its website a directory of state agencies' legislative liaisons, which lists the names of each state agency's salaried officers and employees whose normal duties include attempting to influence state legislation, and each legislative liaison's title, phone number, and email address. The Ethics Commission's web site can be found at <http://ethics.wi.gov>. The directory of State Agency Legislative Liaisons can be found on the Eye on Lobbying website: <https://lobbying.wi.gov>.
